THE WEATHER.

Tonight and Sunday fair; not much change in temperature.

Dr. Schwentker, osteopath, phone 717 Dr. Connor, osteopath, Tel. 656-325.
Mrs. Dave Rosenwald left for Santa Fe today to spend the summer.

A. Dunn is in the city on business from Roswell. He arrived yesterday.
Miss Dolores Huning was a passenger for Los Lunas this morning on a short visit.

G. C. Bean and Frank Boomer were in the city yesterday for the purpose of demonstrating fire brick among railroad circles.

E. H. Salazar, of the United States land office at Fort Sumner, arrived in the city yesterday to attend to business matters.

Five engines from the recent fire in the Santa Fe shops at Seligman, Ariz., are expected in the local shops for renovation and repairs.

F. W. Drake, superintendent of logging operations for the Santa Barbara Timber and Pole company, arrived in the city yesterday from Hodges, N. M.

The best wines and liquors for family use are sold in the Bachechi block on Tijeras avenue between First street and the Santa Fe tracks.

G. C. Tucker, for some time a traveling auditor for Fred Harvey, with headquarters here, left today to return to his work with the Northwestern line.

S. L. Bean, a former master mechanic at the Albuquerque shops of the Santa Fe, was in the city last night and visited between trains with local railroad men.

H. J. Hill, a student at the University, has relinquished his position with the C. H. Sharp Construction company at Abo Pass, and returned to his home in Galesburg, Ill., for the summer.

"Bibi" De Wolf, a local musician whose work upon the cornet, snare drum and effects at local picture shows has made him a favorite in this city, will leave on Monday for Denver, and later for Chicago and Philadelphia, where he expects to follow orchestral work.

Everybody knows where the Bachechi block is—on Tijeras avenue between First street and the Santa Fe tracks. It's the place to buy the best of groceries, dry goods, hardware and general merchandise.

The storekeeper of the Barstow shops, Mr. Heath, is a visitor in Albuquerque and was astonished at the news of the big Barstow fire, which destroyed the roundhouse there yesterday.

On Tijeras avenue between First street and the Santa Fe tracks is the big Bachechi block—the place to buy the best of groceries, dry goods and general merchandise. A special point is made of prompt delivery.

William McIntosh arrived in town yesterday from his big sheep ranch at McIntosh. Mr. McIntosh says the present season is an unusually successful one for the sheepmen.

Miss Helen Anderson returned last night from the Oberlin conservatory of music in Ohio, where she has been pursuing advanced work the past winter. Miss Anderson was an exceptional honors at the famous conservatory.

J. Smith paid a fine of $5 for drunkenness this morning. A. A.
Scott, arrested after the session of police court, put up a $10 bond and was released pending a hearing. He was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Frank A. Storis, the popular secretary of the Elks' lodge, will leave on July 1 for his old home in West Virginia for a visit of two weeks. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Storis and family, who will remain away all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Brown and Mrs. Margaret Medler were passengers for Ochoa, Kan., this morning, where the ladies will spend the summer as guests of relatives of Mrs.
Brown. Mr. Brown will resume his activities as traveling auditor for the Harvey system in two weeks.

SPENT FIVE YEARS OF LIFE IN JAIL

Captain Wendell, Who Takes Charge of Salvation Army Work Here, Had Interesting Experience.

Capt. O. Wendell, for some time in charge of the Salvation Army barracks in Roswell, has arrived in Albuquerque and will look after the interests of the army here for the next year or so. Captain Wendell has been with the Salvation Army for 25 years, becoming a soldier when there were only six corps in the United States. Captain Wendell has spent five years of his life in jail—not as an ordinary prisoner. The captain was never accused of any greater crime than preaching on the streets, all his jail sentences being for this offense.
It will be remembered that 29 years ago Salvationists were jailed in many cities for conducting open air services which, however, are permitted at the present time all over the world.

Captain Wendell, then a private in the ranks, insisted on preaching the work of the Salvation Army on the streets.
He was arrested so many times that he spent practically five years in jail.
The captain was jailed dozens of times in Chicago, Kansas City, Clinton, La., and Marshalltown, Ia. While in prison Wendell made a study of prisoners and prisons which has stood him well in hand in carrying on the Army work.

Captain Wendell will give his first open air service in Albuquerque at 7 o'clock tonight on Central avenue.
He will tell the story of the Proklud Son, to be followed by a lecture in the Army hall at 8 o'clock on the "White Slave Traffic." The captain will relate many experiences which he has had in attempting to break up white slavery during his 25 years' work as a Salvationist. Everybody is invited to the open air meeting and to the barracks.

CONNELLY BECOMES CITY MANAGER FOR OCCIDENTAL

Well Known Young Man Assumes Important Position With Life Insurance Company With Headquarters
Here.

Announcement was made today by Secretary-Manager J. H. O'Reilly of the Occidental Life Insurance company that Henry Connelly, a well-known Albuquerque young man, has been appointed city manager for the life department of the Occidental. Mr.
Connelly was for two years with the Bank of Commerce here and later with the Continental Oil company, resigning the latter position to become identified with the Occidental.
A resident of Albuquerque for many years, Mr. Connelly is a competent and capable young man, enjoys a wide acquaintance and has the confidence of his associates and of the best people of the town. His appointment as city manager for the life department of the Occidental is an ideal one in every way. Mr. Connelly will begin his duties with the Occidental within a few days.

DOESN'T CARE ABOUT THE WEATHER

W. M. Gray, "The Busy Photographer," Has Installed Printing Machine Which Enables Him to Turn Out Perfect Pictures in Record Time.

The title of "the busy photographer" is by no means a mere advertising catch phrase as applied to W. M.
Gray of this city. In fact, the excellence of Mr. Gray's work has been so strenuously recognized during the past few months that, in order to get out pictures with sufficient promptness, he has been obliged to install apparatus which is found only in the large city studios. The feature of the new Gray equipment is a printing machine—a device which, by means of a high-power arc lamp, makes Mr.
Gray entirely independent of weather conditions. With this machine, which was installed at considerable expense, the Gray studio can make prints day and night, and at extraordinary speed. The result of Mr. Gray's enterprise is that he can turn out perfect pictures in record time.

YAQUIS PONDER ON WAR ONCE MORE

Restless Tribe of Fierce Mexican Indians Said to Be Considering a Few Raids on Natives.

Tucson, Ariz., June 23.—Advice received here indicate that there is considerable unrest among the Yaquis at present, and that the reports of disquiet brought in a few days ago are not only well founded but too conservative.
No indications are given by the latest news as to the number of Yaquis in the field in northern Mexico, but their number seems to be considerable and they are receiving accessions to their ranks every day.

Many of the recruits are being drawn from southern Arizona, where large numbers of the Yaquis are employed on the ranches and farms. It is said many of these ranches have been entirely deserted by the Indians, who have gone to join their comrades in the struggle for the land formerly owned by them.

SOCORRO DRIVING TUNNEL IN NEARBY MOUNTAIN

Municipality Will Derive Water Supply From Unique Source; Rancher Has Already Struck Good Flow.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald) Socorro, N. M., June 21.—The city of Socorro has let a contract for a 250-foot tunnel into the Socorro mountains for the purpose of securing an adequate water supply. The work has already commenced and two small streams have been crossed by the contractors and there are encouraging indications of finding a plentiful flow.

J. E. Smith has a fine nursery of 1,000 choice fruit trees and a large number of bearing grape vines which he is preparing for transplanting on his ranch at the foot of the Socorro mountain. Joe has tunneled into the mountain and struck a fine stream of lukewarm water.

The pressure of the city water derived from the same locality has been low for the past few weeks on account of unusual garden and lawn irrigation, and Mr. Smith has kindly donated his flow until the city can make other arrangements.

The Providence Mines and Development company is cleaning up around the old smelter, building new chutes and making preparations in general for early development work.
New machinery has been ordered and the remodeling of the old stamp mill will begin as soon as it is received. It is understood there is plenty of capital behind the work.
